RESOURCE AND eMPOWERMENT TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CENTER FOR BEHAVIORAL HEALTH (RMTAC)

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) grant supports the Resource and eMpowerment Technical Assistance Center for Behavioral Health (RMTAC), which significantly enhances the skillset of providers working with refugees and migrants nationwide.

Leveraging extensive experience, collaboration with frontline providers delivering direct services to these communities is fostered. The purpose of RMTAC is to expand and support the capacity of behavioral health professionals and organizations that provide services to refugees and migrants across the United States.

As a provider, you can utilize RMTAC to request consultation and technical assistance, connect with and learn from national experts, and access a wealth of resources and additional support to better serve refugee and migrant communities.

Reach out today to see how RMTAC can support you in your vital work.
